

St. Francis and the Buddha: A Dialogue of Discovery

Sunday, August 20, 2017 • 1:00-3:00 p.m.
with Father Tom Herbst, OFM

Imagine a meeting of St. Francis of Assisi and the Buddha, perhaps in a forest clearing on a bright day in early autumn. What might each have to say to the other -- would there be laughter, some knowing nods, possibly one or two bemused "scratching of heads"? What do these two men have in common? What are their differences, and do they separate us or bring us closer? Let us find out as we eavesdrop on two great spiritual teachers.

Father Tom Herbst, OFM, is a Franciscan friar and priest with a BA in History from U.C. Santa Barbara; an M.Div. from the Franciscan School of Theology; an MA in Theology from the Franciscan School of Theology/Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley; and a D.Phil. in Theology from the University of Oxford. He resides in England but returns to the U.S. every summer where he is a popular speaker at Mission San Luis Rey in Oceanside.
